

Psychology Major Four-Year Plan

This is a sample Four-Year Plan of the psychology major. Students must also complete the University general education requirements as well as their school/college breadth requirements.

Meet with an advisor to create your academic plan.

	FALL	SPRING
First Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psych 202: Intro to Psychology -Or equivalent • Com-A & Quant-A -Unless satisfied by placement tests -Can be taken fall or spring 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Declare Major (BA or BS) -Must have credit for 202 • Psych Breadth Course • Psych Biology Requirement -Zoology 101 & 102, Zoology 151 or Biocore (apply to begin courses sophomore year)
Second Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Statistics: Psych 210 -Accepted substitutes: STAT 302, 324, OR 371 [SOC 360 through Su19] -QR-A must be completed (Other pre-requisites depend on course) • Psych Breadth Course 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research Methods: Psych 225 -Com-A must be completed -Grade of C or better in Intro Psych and Statistics courses • Psych Breadth Course
Third Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychology Depth Course -Must first complete breadth course 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychology Depth Course -Must first complete breadth course
Fourth Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychology Capstone Course -Must have senior standing and completed Psych 225 (Other pre-requisites vary depending on topic) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychology Elective Requirements -33 credits are required (Additional courses may be needed to meet this requirement) • Graduation -Check DARS report to ensure all requirements have been met