

Get Psyched this October!

Kick off UW-Madison's Homecoming Weekend on Friday, October 25 with four 10-minute presentations on the latest research from Psychology Department faculty. Last year was such a hit that we can't wait to do it again! Save the date and watch for more information soon - including your chance to grab a copy of this year's Go Big Read and to win tickets the Homecoming football game!

Congrats to Alumni Award Recipient Victor Villacrez '00

The Department of Psychology is pleased to recognize Victor Villacrez for his remarkable work in applying psychology to benefit the larger community through outstanding leadership and advocacy. We look forward to the continued impact of his inspiring work.

Don't forget: you can nominate yourself or a fellow alum through September 15!

Psychology Pathways Dinner Now Accepting Reservations

You're invited! Share your career journey and inspire the next generation of UW Psychology majors at the Psychology Pathways Dinner on Wednesday, October 16 from 6-8pm. You'll have the opportunity to offer guidance, network with fellow alumni, and make a real difference by helping students chart their own successful paths. Register today!

Alumni Spotlight on Helen Rottier '18

Helen Rottier landed what she calls "the most fun job I could imagine anyone having" and, lucky for those of us at UW-Madison, that job just happens to be on campus at the Disability Cultural Center.
