Psychology Major Four-Year Plan

This is a sample Four-Year Plan of the psychology major. Students must also complete the University general education requirements as well as their school/college breadth requirements.

Meet with an advisor to create your academic plan.

FALL
- Psych 202: Intro to Psychology
  - Or equivalent
- Com-A & Quant-A
  - Unless satisfied by placement tests
  - Can be taken fall or spring

SPRING
- Declare Major (BA or BS)
  - Must have credit for 202
- Psych Breadth Course
- Psych Biology Requirement
  - Zoology 101 & 102, Zoology 151 or Biocore (apply to begin courses sophomore year)

FALL
- Statistics: Psych 210
  - Accepted substitutes: STAT 302, 324, OR 371 [SOC 360 through Su19]
  - QR-A must be completed (Other pre-requisites depend on course)
- Psych Breadth Course

SPRING
- Research Methods: Psych 225
  - Com-A must be completed
  - Grade of C or better in Intro Psych and Statistics courses
- Psych Breadth Course

FALL
- Psychology Elective Requirements
  - 33 credits are required (Additional courses may be needed to meet this requirement)

SPRING
- Psychology Depth Course
  - Pre-requisites depend on course

FALL
- Psychology Depth Course
  - Pre-requisites depend on course
- Psychology Capstone Course (Fall or Spring)
  - Must have senior standing and completed Psych 225
  (Other pre-requisites vary depending on topic)

SPRING
- Psychology Elective Requirements
  - 33 credits are required (Additional courses may be needed to meet this requirement)
- Graduation
  - Check DARS report to ensure all requirements have been met

Undergraduate Psychology Advisors: advisor@psych.wisc.edu 4th floor Psychology building